Building Safety Month 2026: Built to Last

Celebrated annually since 1980, Building Safety Month is a public awareness campaign that takes place each May and highlights the role of building codes in keeping us safe in the places where we live, work and play. The popular campaign features weekly themes that focus on safety at home, careers in building safety, building resilience, and more.

ICC heavily promotes Building Safety Month to the public and to its members and chapters worldwide. By sponsoring Building Safety Month, you'll stand out as a leader in building safety and help people understand the importance of working together to build a safer world.

This year's theme is Built to Last and the weekly themes are as follows:

Week 1 (May 1 – 10): Safe Homes, Strong Communities

Week 2 (May 11 – 17): Voices of the Built Environment

Week 3 (May 18 – 24): Prepared to Protect

Week 4 (May 25 – 31): Communities Without Limits

More information about Building Safety Month 2026 will be available soon!

International Code Council Expo

The 2026 International Code Council Expo is a place where exhibitors can educate and update building safety and design professionals. Take advantage of this opportunity to connect your organization with a broad audience of code officials, building safety professionals and other industry leaders to attract new leads and achieve your business development goals. See floor plan.

Why Attend

- Meet face-to-face with building safety and design professionals that are local, from across the country and around the world
- Demonstrate your product and show how it stands out from the competition
- Educate attendees about your products and services and why they are important to their business or next building project
- Establish your credibility as an expert by networking with attendees and helping them solve real world challenges

Benefits of Exhibiting

- Two (2) complimentary exhibitor badges for every 100 square feet of exhibit space*
- Use of the Expo logo and marketing materials to help with your exhibit promotions
- Complimentary listing on the Expo website (Listing includes company name, booth #, web address, and 100-word company description)
- Complimentary listing in the Mobile App (Listing includes company name, booth #, phone number, web address, company logo, and 100-word company description)
- Complimentary listing on signage located outside the main expo entrance (Listing includes company name and booth number)

Exhibitors are responsible for the following services (not included in booth space fee):

- Booth furnishings
- Booth carpet or floor covering (required)
- Inbound and outbound shipping and freight handling cost
- Electrical, Internet or other utility services
- Audiovisual equipment
- Booth installation and dismantling
- Booth cleaning

Exhibitors may promote their brand, products and services as long as these items do not, in the judgment of Show Management, rise to the level of advocating a position on a code hearing action. Advocating a position on a code change is strictly prohibited.

Exhibitor Rates

- $2,800 – Standard Fee (+$175 for corner)
- $2,500 – Early Bird Fee (+$175 for corner) [register by May 31, 2026]

1. Construction related product advertisements from manufacturers, vendors and service providers are encouraged and will be accepted for inclusion in International Code Council (ICC) publications, such as BSI Weekly and the Building Safety Journal. However, outside of arrangements made with ICC, advertisements promoting the following categories will not be accepted:
 - a. Safety Codes and Standards not referenced in the ICC Family of Codes
 - b. Product and System Evaluation Services
 - c. Plumbing, Mechanical and Fuel Gas Services
 - d. Sustainability (Green) Evaluation and Verification Services
 - e. Training, Education and Certification on Codes and Standards
 - f. Building Department Accreditation and Accreditation Services
 - g. Plan Review Services
2. ICC must approve all proposed advertisements and/or sponsorships in advance and reserves the right to refuse them for any reason in its sole discretion.
3. ICC will not accept advertising unless the client is prepared to validate any claims, issues or statements made in the advertisement about a product, material, system, method or service.
4. ICC will not accept advertising that contains comparisons to or derogatory, disparaging or inflammatory comments about the client's competitors or about competing products or services.
5. The client acknowledges that an advertisement in an ICC publication does not constitute, and shall not be interpreted as an endorsement by ICC of the client's organization, product, material, system, method or service.
6. It is understood that clients shall not use the International Code Council name or image in their commercial activities in any manner that would directly or indirectly indicate ICC's endorsement of the client, or product, system or services, unless there is a contractual agreement with ICC.
7. ICC does not accept advertising that is discriminatory based on race, religion, color, national origin, sex, age or disability.

Acceptance of Contracts

1. No rebates will be allowed for errors in submitted advertisements.
2. The client and/or the client's agency agree to indemnify ICC against all expenses of any nature arising from the unauthorized use of names or pictures and copyright infringements in their advertisements.
3. No contracts will be accepted for more than 12 months in advance.
4. An order may be canceled by ICC if the client(s) fail to pay accounts when due, and the difference between rates billed and rates earned on space used shall become due and payable immediately.
5. Cancellation policy: Client must cancel in writing, including reason for canceling. Written notice must be received via email 7 business days prior to the scheduled issue.
6. All sponsorships and advertisements must be paid in full at the time of purchase and are non-refundable.
7. ICC is not bound by any condition or instruction, whether verbal or written, if it is in conflict with ICC's established policies.
8. Contracts must specify a definite schedule of insertions, issues and advertisement sizes.
9. All advertising rates and conditions are subject to change without notice.
